

Family Worship

May 10, 2020

Open with prayer.

Read Colossians 1:15-20 aloud together:

<sup>15</sup>He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. <sup>16</sup>For by him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things were created through him and for him. <sup>17</sup>And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together.

<sup>18</sup>And he is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in everything he might be preeminent. <sup>19</sup>For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, <sup>20</sup>and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross.

Discussion Questions:

1. Verses 15-17 tell us that Jesus is the creator and ruler of the world and everything in it. How does knowing this help you to find comfort in times when everything seems to be going wrong?
2. Verses 18-20 tell us that as the head of the Church, Jesus is committed to his people, even to the point of his own death. How does this truth help you when you are tempted to doubt his love for you?
3. Pastor Drew said, “Good theology should lead us to doxology [worship].” How do dense, meaty passages like today’s help you to worship better?

Close with prayer for Forreston Grove, our community, our world, and one another.

Optional: Sing a hymn, praise song, or the doxology together.
