Open with prayer.

Read Psalm 133 aloud together:

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

- ¹Behold, how good and pleasant it is when brothers dwell in unity!
²It is like the precious oil on the head,
running down on the beard,
On the beard of Aaron,
running down on the collar of his robes!
³It is like the dew of Hermon,
which falls on the mountains of Zion!
For there the LORD has commanded the blessing,
life forevermore.

Discussion Questions:

1. What comes to mind when you think of “unity”? What would it look like for you to be unified with others at Forreston Grove? With believers from other congregations?
2. Pastor Drew said that when we are all looking to Christ, we will find ourselves becoming more unified with one another. How have you seen this in your own life? Does this mean that Christians should expect to agree on everything? Why or why not?
3. Do you find yourself more impatient or more fearful when it comes to the question of restarting in-person Sunday services? Why? How can you communicate your concerns and support the elders as they make plans?

Close with prayer for Forreston Grove, our community, our world, and one another.

Optional: Sing a hymn, praise song, or the doxology together.
